2. It is the understanding of this office that a general revision of the fiscal regulations is underway and that a clarification of the application of referenced statute to CIA fiscal procedures will be embodied in the proposed revised regulations. This office offers its assistance, at the drafting or later stages, in such revision.

3. This office will also endeavor to keep the Comptroller advised of decisions of the Comptroller General, or other administrative, judicial or legislative actions, which may bear upon the construction of section 1311. Attached hereto are several decisions of the Comptroller General which we believe to constitute all decisions so far issued by him interpreting section 1311:
